By George Bernard Shaw
Directed by James Glossman.
Starring - Paula Prentiss as Mrs. Warren and daughter Prentiss Benjamin as Vivie Warren.

With: Lansing favorite Ken Beachler as Praed, returning talent Gary Huston (Voice of Good Hope) as Crofts, Jack Moran as Frank, and Paul Murphy as Rev. Samuel Gardner.

Details: Theater Artistic Director, Kristine Thatcher, along with Mrs. Warren's Director, James Glossman, will have an open rehearsal tomorrow, Friday August 31, 2007. BoarsHead Theater subscribers and patrons will get an insider's look; they'll see actors at work on this fascinating production, starring Paula Prentiss.

Prentiss plays the role of Mrs. Warren, a prominent businesswoman whose well educated daughter, Vivie, is appalled to learn that her mother's fortune was made through owning and managing high-class brothels! Whether in 1902 or 2007, the clash of this mother and daughter is filled with energy and humor. It's the wit and wisdom of Shaw!

Information: Open Rehearsal – free to BoarsHead Subscribers and patrons: Friday, August 31, 2007 from 5-6 p.m. in the Theater rehearsal hall, to the left off the lobby.
