

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 30, 2008

CONTACT:
Jonathan Courtemanche
517-484-7800 ext. 111
jcourtemanche@boarshead.org (preferred)

BoarsHead Theater presents 2008 Young Playwrights' Festival

Lansing, MI - BoarsHead Theater will present the 2008 Young Playwrights' Festival on Tuesday, May 6, 2008 at 7:00 p.m.

The Second Company will perform staged readings of four plays written by Williamstown High School students, including "At Least We Have Each Other" by Rhone Eppelheimer and "The Avengers" by Casey E. Shipman (tied for first place), "Love and Fame" by Emily Prevo (second place), and "Not What The Seem" by Anthony Tuttila (third place).

"Every year we are astonished by the plays that are submitted by these students," says Marlene Shelton, BoarsHead's Managing Director and Director of Education. "It is so exciting for us to see the depths of talent and to possibly discover the next great American playwright."

In addition to seeing their plays read, YPF winners receive a certificate and each first place winner will receive a $50 savings bond. The Young Playwright's Festival is an annual event sponsored by BoarsHead to help foster arts education in the Lansing area.

The Young Playwrights' Festival is open to the public and admission is free.

###